MRS. LEASE'S LATEST.

It Is Alleged She is Reconciled to Lewelling.

LETTER PURPORTING TO BE HERS

Written to One F. M. Jarbeau-It Does Not Bear Every Evidence of Being

Genuine.

A letter was made public today which purports to have been written by Mrs. Mary E. Lease, announcing her reconciliation with Governor Lewelling.

This letter is represented to have been written to one F. M. Jarbeau. Nobody believes the letter to be Mrs. Lease's. The following are the extracts from the letter which are made public: "My Dear Friend Jarbeau: I do not know whether to express to you my thankfulness over the outcome of your efforts, or to express my grief and sorrow over being compelled to recede from the position I had taken. I believed then that I was right, and at times even yet wonder if I really was wrong. When Mr. Jones assured me that in time, and but a short time, the Democratic party would be with us, pledging his honor that this would be the result, I resolved to yield to your importunities and seek peace with Gov. Lewelling. I have done so, and but today I received assurances from him that he would overlook the past and forget all the unpleasantness that had arisen between us. "It was hard, my dear friend, for me to beg his forgiveness and asked to be restored to his friendship, and it was harder for me to give up all thought of becoming the first woman candidate for United States senator. But this has all been done, and now I am with you to the I have written to Senator Martin assuring him of my devotion to his cause. I could do no less in consideration of his many efforts in the interest of harmony and unity. He even offered to withdraw from the race if I insisted upon entering the field as a candidate. This was more than I anticipated and proved his sincerity. I can now say to you that he is the only man in the united Populist and Democratic parties who possesses all the qualifications for the position he now fills. I believe I could have filled the position with credit, but that is past. "You may show this letter to Governor Lewelling and tell him that I authorize you to read my last letter to him—a letter that will prove to you how perfect has been my surrender in the interest of peace, harmony and success. I hope I will never regret the step I have taken. I will not, if Mr. Jones' pledge that the Democrats will be with us—in fact, hereafter, that they will be of us-should prove to be true, and I believe it will.

"I have some good news to tell you, not the result of your kind offices, but the outcome of others equally disister-ested. In the event of his defeat for the sted. In the event of his defeat for the state printership, and he will be defeated, Major Hudson will come out openly for our cause. Warn our editors not to attack him too hastily. We cannot afford to lose this opportunity of gaining a great state daily, the only one that promises to come to us. His present advocacy of a gold standard is merely for effect. It is not meant. When he drops that line of argument it will be to adopt the Omaha declaration of principles. Tell Dr. McLallin to let up in his buse in the columns of the Advocate. The doctor understands the proposed action, conditional it is true, of Maj. Hudson, but he does not realize how near the glorious day may be. Warn nim cautiously, for the good old man is not properly balanced, and he is so apt

o do the wrong thing. "Urge Mr. Breidenthal to commence our campaign immediately, and assure him I will soon be with you, and will enter the field under his instructions.

corning stripe, and I would have been forced to part company with them in agy event. They are too small for the great work we have to do. See Mr. Jones and release him from his pledges of secrecy. The time has come to act. Tell him it would be good policy for him to deny having had any correspondence with me if any of the meddling newspaper men should suspect and charge that we have been in communication. "On my part I will publicly deny that I have ever had any bitterness toward Gov. Lewelling, and that I have ever gone through the form of reconciliation.

"Be careful, my dear Mr. Jarbeau, not to let publicity come to this, as it would be embarrassing to all, though of course no one could prove anything.

"I wish you would see Dr. Neely and assure him that his offer to support me for attorney general is appreciated, but tell him that I am not a candidate for neck and jumped off the window sill. any position now. I will renew my promise to him that the first demand I will make of Senator Martin, after his re-election will be his appointment as Minister to Mexico, according to his re-

A NEW KIND OF COURT. Two Shawnee County Men Having Their Differences Arbitrated. Rev. C. M. McNulty and Robert Taggart are trying to settle their differences by arbitration. The two men are brothers-in-law. Mc-Nulty owned a farm near Valencia which he traded to Taggart for property in Pittsburg, Pa. When McNulty saw the Pittsburg property he made a demand for possession of his farm on the grounds of misrepresentation. Taggart refused to give up the farm and a bitter personal quarrel ensued, during which McNuity xhausted every means to oust Taggart When everything else failed he applied to the district court for a receiver for the property and a Mr. Baker was appointed. Several civil suits were filed by either party in the district court before they agreed to submit their wrongs to a board of arbitration. Each has given bond to abide by the decision of the board. Taggart has made a claim for damages aggregating about $5,000, $2,000 of which "I am sorry to abandon Mr. Willitts and is for defamation of character and Mc-Nulty also claims heavy damages. Almost a week has been occupied in taking testimony and the hearing is still being continued. The arbitrators are Major Wm. Sims,

H. E. Larimer, Edward Mitchell, C. P. Balmer and F. A. Kiene. SUICIDE AT THE ASYLUM.

An Incurable Patient Tles a Rope Around a Window Bar. Another suicide has occurred at the state insane asylum, this time it being Mrs. Annie Swensson, an Inmate, from Lincolnsville, Marion county. She committed suicide by hanging herself. When discovered yesterday morning she was hanging suspended by a rope from the bars in the window. In some way she had pulled out the cord that runs the pulleys in the window, and fastening it to one of the bars near the top of the window, tied the other end around her CHASING A CIRCUS. Two Topeka Grocers Follow the Sella-Rentfrow Circus.

H. G. Beedy, a South Topeka grocer and Groat Brothers, who keep a mest-market at Seventeenth street and Kansas avenue, left today for Emporia to overtake Bells & Rentfrow's Great Syndicate show, determined to get satisfaction or make trouble. They both claim that the circus owes them money for supplies, and Mr. Beedy claims that Mr. Eph Rentfrow gave him a counterfeit ten doilar bill in part payment of the amount due him. Beedy and Groat left at noon for Emporia. They say that if they settle their respective bills there will be no trouble, but if they decline to do so they will prosecute Rentfrow for passing counterfeit money. The syndicate show performs at Emporia today.
